

Troopers Arrest Four Suspects on Burglary Charges – Wilmington

Imani Oakley ARRESTED

Miracle Warren ARRESTED

Omar Morris ARRESTED

Christopher Smith ARRESTED

Wilmington, Delaware – The Delaware State Police have arrested four suspects on attempted burglary and other related charges.

On March 8, 2020, at approximately 10:47 a.m., Troopers were dispatched to Berger Brothers Furniture located at 4307 Governor Printz Boulevard, located in the Merchants Square Shopping Center, in reference to a burglary in progress. It was reported multiple juvenile males were attempting to break into the rear of the business at three separate secured doors. In addition, they were kicking and throwing large rocks, disabling the locking mechanisms of each door causing significant damage to the metal doors, frames and locking mechanisms on several doors. Shortly after dispatched, and upon arrival, a Trooper observed four males wearing clothing matching the description provided directly in front of the business. As contact was attempted with the four subjects all fled on foot in multiple directions. Troopers quickly responded to the area and were able to apprehend all of the suspects during the foot pursuit. A K-9 track was conducted from where the suspects were initially observed, which led directly to the damaged doors on the rear of the building.

The suspects identified as Imani Oakley, 16 of Wilmington,

Miracle Warren, 17 of Wilmington, Omar Morris, 14 of Wilmington, and Christopher Smith, 13 of Wilmington, were transported to Troop 1 where arrest warrants were completed out of Justice of the Peace Court for Attempted Burglary, Criminal Mischief, Conspiracy, and Resisting Arrest for all four juveniles. All four juveniles, and their guardians, were subsequently provided Family Court paperwork detailing the charges, at which time they were released to their guardians pending a court date.
